OBSERVATION: It has been found that two students of Bengali department joined PG course through distance education under IDOL, Gauhati University. They (Nikita Das & Arpita Singha) took admission in the academic session 2019-2020. No. of first class was satisfactory and majority students got above 70%, but only one student got second class due to her medical ground. This year a student from Bengali Department own the First place in the Dibrugarh University. Our six pass out students from previous batch joined in private job.
