ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Sri Pulak Bhattacharya, Assistant Professor in the Department of Education at Women's College Tinsukia. Without his exceptional direction, inspiration, and enthusiastic encouragement from the very beginning of my study, this study would not have been possible.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Head of the Department (HOD), Mrs. Rekhamoni Baruah, Women's College, Tinsukia, Department of Education, for allowing us three days off from regular sessions to conduct this research as well as for her insightful suggestions and counsel.

I really thank Rituparna, Nikha, Irani, Rubi, Madhusmita, Doyashree, Pankhi, and all of my friends for their helpful suggestions advice and encouragement throughout my study.

I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to my father, Mr. Prasanna Deori, for his blessings, love, support, and encouragement as well as for providing me with all the resources I needed to carry out my research. My father helped me print out this project on time, and for that I am also grateful.

My mother, Mrs. Monju Rani Deori, also deserves my sincere gratitude for her blessing, love, and support as well as for coming along with me while I conducted my research in the Tea Tribe region.

I also want to express my gratitude to my sister Tripti for taking pictures of me when I was conducting my research, helping me type this project, and giving me wise advise.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Apart from personal efforts and steadfastness to work, constant inspiration and encouragement given by a number of individuals served as the driving force that enabled me to submit this research project in present form. Inspiration, guidance, direction, co-operation, all came in abundance and it seems almost an important task for me to acknowledge the same in adequate terms.

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude & sincere thanks to my guide Mr. Pulak Bhattacharyya, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, Women's College, Tinsukia, for his mature, able & valuable guidance. I owe thanks to him for all the help, painstaking efforts and deep insight into the problem and thus improving the quality of work at all stages. It was because of him that I was able to learn so much in this short period of time.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Rajib Bordoloi, Principal of Women's College, Tinsukia, for giving us opportunity to upgrade myself in knowledge and persistent encouragement for this successful project work.

I owe my heartfelt thanks to HOD Rekhamani Baruah, Department of Education and all other faculties of my department for their constant help and valuable suggestions throughout my project.

My sincere thanks to my friends for their help, support and understanding. Their constant support has been instrumental in the smooth completion of this work. My parents and my sister contributed significantly to bring this day in my life. I give special thanks to my family members for providing me the moral support and resources in successful completion of my works.

Last but not the least; I am thankful to the almighty God for the unseen blessings during the entire work.
