NSS camp ends in Tinsukia

CORRESPONDENT

DISPURHODHA, April 4: The NSS unit of Women's College, Tinsukia, organized a seven-day special camp at Bhabhi Block, which concluded a few days ago.

The NSS volunteers organized a number of programmes for the villagers like legal awareness programme, its association with DRSS, Tinsukia, inter-collegiate programme, survey of the village and social health awareness for school children, health education and check-ups given in the two schools.

The camp was inaugurated by Dr Rajni Barshika, principal of Women's College, Tinsukia. The objectives of the camp were explained by Dr. Theresia Sarkis, programme officer of the NSS unit. The volunteers conducted quiz, speech and drawing competitions among the students of Bhabhi Block SHS School and Mahakul Great High School and other local classes. They found that the level of knowledge in English, English and general knowledge was not up to the mark. Hence, the NSS unit decided to start the respective knowledge classes in the school and the principal of the college, decided to offer certificates to the children as a thank you programme. The volunteers shared their experience of staying in the village and conducting survey in three villages, namely Bhabhisohit, Barjan and Bhabhul.

The unit organized a cultural function on the last day of the camp as a part of the volunteers' function. The programme was attended by a large number of villagers along with a number of teachers from Women's College, Tinsukia.

Sukhdev Gupta, CEO of Bhabhi Block attended the function as a guest of honour. In her speech, she shared her experiences of working with the village people and their prevalent problems of health, education, like also made an appeal to the student volunteers to build the root cause of the low level of knowledge among the children and help their concerns. She thanked Dr. Rajni Barshika, vice principal of Women's College, Tinsukia, and Dr. Theresia Sarkis, coordinator, also spoke on the occasion. Dr. Theresia Sarkis also offered the vote of thanks. Altogether 40 volunteers participated in the camp.
